

I don't support in any way the continued consolidation of the news into the hands of fewer and fewer players. The ban on cross ownership is a good way to prevent what has already become an undemocratic, cynical monopoly on news. It may be good for the bottom line but it violates every tenet of what a free and democratic world is all about. Do not repeal this ban.